ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you

HEARD IN COURT.

The Prowler Tells Things He Saw and Heard.

"I sat for a while in the court room yesterday afternoon," said the Prowler as he called this morning to borrow an exchange, "and heard the lawyers fussin' over the smoke-begrimed moon-shiners and the fellows who sell the ardent by the drink from a hip-pocket dispensary.

"There was a fellow from Stokes the home of the fellows who are so numerous and who are so thoroughly banded together that it is hazardous for any of Uncle Sam's boys to attempt to pay them a visit. The fellow had been seen to carry an arm full of wood to a distillery and was indicted for aiding in making the mountain dew-drop which makes the eye sparkle. He said he only swapped the turn of wood for a bucket of slops to feed his pigs. Mr Settle uppeared for him, and, after the jury had found him guilty, asked the judge to deal tenderly with his man. Attorney Holton asked what section of Stokes the man came from, and naming two or three notorious neighborhoods, asked if he was from any of them The answer that he was not came clear as a bell from the pig-feeder, and he said he lived 'way 'tother side o' there

"That the place," said Mr. Holton, "that corner over there is a bad and a notorious place."

"One of the finest sections in the country," declared Mr. Settle, "over there next to the Virginia line"

"Let him be imprisoned 30 days and pay the cost," said the judge.

* * * *

Next came an old darkey something like a hundred and fifty years old When he appeared Mr. Holton looked at him with disgust and said something about Mr. Brooks, the solicitor, dumping such a lot of defendants on him. He took another good look at the old darkey, who had an old handkerchief around his head. Mr. Holton actually looked mad enough to kick the old man out of the house, but he didn't do it. He just locked that way a moment, then smiled and said he would enter a nol pros in the old fellow's case. He then told the old man to go home and quit selling liquor. The old fellow, who was from Chapel Hill, was glad, but let the handkerchief stay on his head, at least, until he got outside the court room.

* * * *

Then I heard Major Alexander, in deep and solemn tones, pleading for mercy for a colored man from Winston, who, the mayor said, was physically unable to endure a term of imprisonment. He called the negro up for the court to see how weak he looked. The coon looked like he could stand anything, almost, and the judge said: "He looks all right, dressed pretty slick, and looks stout."

The major assured the court that the man was dangerously sick, and said he had a certificate from Dr. Thomas, of Winston, as to his condition, which was submited to Mr. Holton for inspection.

Mr. Holton allowed he knew Dr. Thomas, and he was a good doctor, too.

"Yes," said the Major, "he was a surgeon in the United States army at Santiago"

Mr. Holton read the certificate, which advised that it was best for the negro's health to keep quiet and away from excitement. "The jail's about the quietest place I know of," said Mr. Holton, "and—

"Thirty days," said the judge.

The Prowler remarked as he walked out that federal court is a great place to have fun if you are not a defendant.

DR BURBANK'S NEW OFFICES.

The Growth of His Business in this City.

Calling around at the Southern Loan and Trust Co's new building this morning a reporter drifted into the handsome office room of Dr Burbank, on third floor, Nos. 301-303 We found the genial doctor busy and waited until the patient was discharged The reception room is large and well lighted, tastily furnished and inviting looking The private office is none the less cozy and attractive

In this connection we may be permitted to testify to the growth of Dr. Burbank's business in this city, as an expert in the delicate work of correcting defective vision. Since coming to Greensboro last April he has treated many cases, and not a single complaint has been lodged. He has received some very high and complimentary testimonials of his work, which he declines to print, preferring to let his work speak for itself.

A Note of Warning.

There is a tax of twenty dollars imposed on dealers in wood. Those who run wood yards in the city have to pay this tax, and they are going to see that they are protected in it. It is said that some people are having wood shipped here and then dividing it out to others who do not wish to buy from the local dealers.

Now the question is, will such be liable under the tax? Is there not danger of unwittingly becoming a wood-dealer? It would be well to be careful, or your wood might cost you pretty high. The tax might cost you more than the wood.

Boers Demand Removal of British Troops from their Borders

BESIDES ALL OTHER FORCES

Landed by Great Britain in South Africa Since the Bloemfontein Conference.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

London, Oct. 10—A dispatch from Pretoria to Delagoa Bay says that an urgent dispatch has just been handed Conyngham Greene, the British agent, requesting the explicit assurance of the withdrawal in forty-eight hours of all British troops on the borders, besides the forces landed in South Africa since the Bloemfontein conference.

ENGLISH PEOPLE DISSATISFIED.

Manchester, Oct. 10—The Guardian says there is a growing dissatisfaction among the supporters of the government at the slow progress made in Transvaal affairs The Guardian says the fact is the Boers are playing a game of baffle and are making things awkward for the ministerialists, who desire to force conclusions by holding on to the defensive, and not by beginning hostilities. It's only a week till the meeting of parliament, and if the Boers possess sufficient patience the British government may be placed in a dilemma. It is notorious that the war party and the cabinet are in close touch with certain South African magnates, whose earnest wish is that President Kruger should show fight and in some way or other an irrevocable blow could be struck before parliament can say anything But it turns out that Kruger is not in a position to take the initiative, and Commandant Joubet's cautious tactics have prevented steps towards a clash on the other side.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Oct. 10—A cable to the New York News Bureau says the Reuters telegrams confirm the news sent by the correspondent announcing the Boers' demand and the removal of British troops from the borders of the Transuaal.

HOME FROM JAMAICA.

Mr. S. E. Hough, of Winston Tells His Experience.

A Telegram man interviewed Mr. S. E. Hough, the well known photographer, of Winston, here this morning on his way home from Kingston, Jamaica, where he has been for several months.

Mr. Hough says the country is not what it used to be. The government is bad, and it takes 42 per cent of all income to pay the officials. Sugar is down and whole plantations are lying idle. Only property that is in use is taxable, and taxes are enormously high. Houses for rent are taxed 25 per cent. of the rental value. The roads are fine, but it costs ten shillings a year per wheel for vehicles to travel over them. The tax on a bicycle is therefore one pound. Horse and buggy, three pounds. The import duty is also high, costing $2.00 a barrel on flour, and ten cents on the smallest package.

He further says the population, which is largely negroes, are the most worthless and indolent set he ever saw. "Why," said he, "on the island which was so devastated by storm some time ago and to which this country sent so many ship loads of provisions for free distribution, the people would not help unload the stuff without pay."

We asked Mr. Hough how long he was going to stay at home before returning to the island "Well," he said, "I had to come home to the fair, and—and—I think I will stay at home" He is abundantly satisfied with his last trip to Jamaica.

MR. GLENN ASSAULTED.

But the Fight Didn't Amount to Very Much

In the trial of the King case in federal court, Hon. R B. Glenn, it is said, was pretty severe in attacking the character of Mr. John G Brodnax The strictures so incensed the latter that he made a personal assault on Mr. Glenn near the court house square this morning.

Mr. Glenn is in a much weakened condition from illness and recent treatment from his physician, and was in bad shape for a scrap. Had he been well, and had no one interfered there might have been a desperate fight, as both are stout men. It is said that Broadnax staggered Mr Glenn by the first blow, which landed under the chin, and as the men were coming together Spencer Blackburn stepped between and stopped them.

An eye witness says that only one blow, so far as he could see, was struck, and that one did no damage. And it is well.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 10

John Thompson the printer has left town.

A. R Shaw, of Henderson, was here yesterday.

Dr. D A. Stanton spent yesterday in Greensboro.

F R. Grant came up from Greensboro last night

W. C. Denny returned from Greensboro last night.

Danville was represented here this morning by W J. Westbrook.

J. M. McDonald, of Pittsboro, arrived in the city this morning.

W. S. Blackburn, of New York, was a guest of this city this morning.

Electric lights have been placed in J. W. Edmundson's tonsorial parlors.

"Faust" was presented here in the opera house last night to a large audience.

J H. Petty and little daughter went to Greensboro on the 11:38 train this morning.

W. J. Armfield, Sr., and daughter, Miss Blanche, spent yesterday in Greensboro.

Mrs. Charles Tilden returned last night from Greensboro, where she spent the day.

Engineer Adams' wife and children returned last evening from a visit to relatives at Cary.

The new building on the grounds of the colored school is rapidly nearing completion on the outside.

We are reliably informed that a notable wedding will take place in these parts before many more frosts. No questions answered.

Dr. A P Staley, the silversmith, has received his engraving machine and can do your lettering while you wait. He is an expert manipulator.

The residence of Mr. Donahue Smith on Steele street will be beautified by a coat of paint. P. J. Collins commenced to apply the brush this morning.

"Mephisto" to the audience last night: "I hope we will have the pleasure of meeting you again in the future." Laughter and applause by the audience. Catch on?

Uncle Nick Slaughter went 'possum hunting last night. Wonder what kind of luck he had? But why should we ask—he carried those bloodied hounds of his along, and they never fail to track—a bear.

The socalled gypsies or horse traders who were seen near Greensboro Sunday are now camped on the outskirts of this city. Away with gypsyism and Mormonism, North Carolina seems to have become a garden spot for such isms

If you had been at the depot last night when the southbound local arrived and saw the crowd of about 100 people (mostly strangers) that got off you would have thought something unusual was taking place here to attract such a crowd. But such was not the case. High Point is a wide-awake town and the trade magnet draws people here most every day from all parts of the state and the south.

WHITSETT NEWS.

Society Work Increasing—New Students Arriving.

Correspondence Telegram.

Whitsett, N. C., Oct. 9—J. Buxton Robertson, a full fledged senior, left today for his home in Amanance county, and incidentally to see one dear friend. Pursue thy way.

Since our last writing several new students have arrived—Jones, Warren and Vance sending last per presentatives.

Our hustling merchant, J. D. Oldham informs the writer that he has had an increased patronage since the dissolution of the firm of Robertson & Oldham, and is better prepared to meet the ever increasing trade than ever before. He says he has sold about 70 pairs of shoes in the last few days. He is, however representing the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company, which accounts for it all.

B. M. Rogers, a student prepared to teach at this place, leaves Monday for South Carolina, where he will hold down the boards a few years.

The clever and obliging G. F Hovis, we are sorry to chronicle, leaves us today for his home near King's Mountain.

A geographical reception will be given at the Institute Wednesday evening.

Prof. Whitsett was among the travelers last week.

The senior class now numbers nineteen, two old students arriving Saturday.

Society work is increasing—so much so that the Athenian and Dialectic societies have decided to have society work at night, seeing that by this method they can convene at 7 o'clock and give every member in the society a chance to speak both rounds; the other way, meeting in the afternoon does not give us ample time to transact the salient features of the society.

Have you got a 'phone? Please put us on your card. Our number is 172 and sometime you may want us to send you something in a hurry. Thacker & Brockmann.

PEABODY FUND CHECK.

Supt. Mebane Received $1 300 Yesterday--Apportionment.

Prof. C. H Mebane, the superintendent of public instruction, received a check yesterday for $1,300 from Dr. J. L. M. Curry, the agent of the Peabody fund, says the Morning Post. This is the first payment of the Peabody fund which has been apportioned North Carolina this year.

In his letter to Superintendent Mebane, Dr. Curry says: "I have adopted the schedule of apportionment as suggested by you. I congratulate you on the work you are doing."

The following is the schedule of apportionment for the Peabody fund, which was suggested by Superintendent Mebane and which has been adopted by Dr. Curry. The total amount of the apportionment to North Carolina for the year is $4,850:

Greensboro State Normal College, $2,000
New Bern graded schools, $200.
Waynesville graded schools, $150
High Point graded schools, $100.
Elizabeth City colord normal school, $300.
Franklinton colored normal school, $100
Goldsboro colored normal school, $100.
Kinston graded schools, $200.
Mt. Airy graded schools, $100
Washington graded school, $ 00.
Winston colored normal school, $300.
Fayetteville colored normal school, $300.
Plymouth colored normal school, $100.
Institutes for colored teachers next summer, $400

THE CANDY CURE FOR DRINK.

It Will Stop the Desire for Alcoholic Stimulants. So Says One.

He was munching away vigorously at something when the Saunterer came up

"Have a piece of candy?" he asked, holding out a small paper bag filled with caramels, "they are all right."

The Saunterer took a caramel and then, knowing that his friend hadn't ever before won any medals for fondness for confections, wanted to know the reason for his new departure.

"I don't mind telling you," was the reply. I'm eating the stuff just to keep from drinking my usual quantity of alcoholic beverages."

A look of surprise must have passed over the Saunterer's face, for his friend grinned.

"I supposed you'd be puzzled," he continued, "just as others have been before you. It's all simple enough, though. The taste of the candy takes away, or, rather, destroys the taste for the liquor I have been so fond of imbibing. I learned that by accident Had been eating a bit of taffy and met a friend who insisted on buying a drink I took whiskey, and found that the combination wasn't a palatable one at all. Just for fun, I next tried beer, and it proved to be even worse I had been wanting to stop drinking for a long time, and concluded if candy would have that effect once it would again. That was two weeks ago, and since then I haven't been without a piece of some kind of confection in my pocket. Whenever I feel a longing for a drink coming over me, I just slip the candy in my mouth, and that settles it for the time being. Try it whenever you want to swear off. It beats taking the pledge."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SAMPSON IN HAMPTON ROADS.

Arrival of the North Atlantic Squadron

Old Point, Va, Oct. 7—The North Atlantic squadron arrived in Hampton Roads last evening, and came directly up to Fort Monroe and anchored Rear Admiral Sampson was in command. The vessels which arrived are: The flagship New York, cruisers Brooklyn and New Orleans, and the battleships Indiana and Massachusetts. The battleship Texas was already in the harbor. The gun-boat Scorpion also accompanied the squadron.

The orders for the return of the cruiser New Orleans to New York for repairs preparatory to sailing for Manila, reached Admiral Sampson this morning. An order to hold the Brooklyn in readiness was received at the same time.

It Was Haunted.

One of our carriers, a timid boy who is afraid of ghosts, refused to carry the Bee around the house where the negro woman hanged herself. He saw spooks and accordingly quit his job with about fifty papers to deliver. That explains to some people the whichness of the why concerning missed papers Saturday night.

We did not suppose that there were a half dozen kids in Danville afraid of the devil himself—but that carrier weakened and threw up the sponge. He should be made a missionary and sent to Africa for the cannibals to devour. He is not tough.—Danville Bee.

You can get a pair to fit you now. On account of some very lively selling in men's shoes we got badly out of sizes in our special box calf and vici kid at $2 25, $3 00 and $3.50 last week, but we received a large shipment of these Saturday and can furnish any size you want from 5 to 11 now in tan or black either. PRAYER FOR THE ADMIRAL.

Dewey Attends Special Services at His Old Church.

Washington, D C., Oct. 8—Admiral Dewey today attended services at St. John's Episcopal church, where the Episcopal special ceremony of prayer and thanksgiving for the crown of victory for our arms and for the safe return from sea was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith, the rector. The admiral and the church officials avoided giving notice in order to avoid the curious crowd that would flock to the church.

The rector in his sermon made no allusion to Admiral Dewey, but impressively delivered the two formal prayers of the ritual, at the request of the admiral. One of these gave thanks to "Almighty God, the sovereign commander of all the world, in whose hand is power and might, which none is able to withstand," and for "all the victories and deliverances of the past two years." The other, to which the entire congregation bowed earnestly, offers thanks "for conducting in safety through the perils of the great deep, this, Thy servant, who now desires to return his thanks unto Thee in Thy holy church"

In accordance with the prescribed service, there was no response or expressed participation in these prayers. The admiral is an old parishioner of St Johns, which almost all of the presidents of the United States up to the Lincoln administration attended.

The admiral spent the afternoon making a few calls, and this afternoon took supper with some old Washington friends.

One Girl's Very Modern Idea.

"Do you know," said a girl I know across a supper table to me, night before last, "I shall not be at all surprised when I die, to find that the dead are just as busy staying dead as we are living, and that they dread coming to life as much as we do dying? I dare say they have to work day and night to stay dead, and that all the time they are haunted by the horrible thought that if they make failures of themselves they'll starve to life What do you think?"—Washington Post.

THE STATE NORMAL.

The following editorial appeared in this morning's Raleigh News and Observer:

From the day its doors were first opened, the State Normal and Industrial College for women has been a record breaker. For an hundred years the state has maintained a university and for years an Agricultural and Mechanical College has been supported by the state for men and boys, but it was not until about ten years ago that the state made any provision for the education of its women. Private individuals and churches had established excellent institutions of learning for women which had wrought great things and become famous, but the state had done nothing.

The opening of the Normal at Greensboro was a new departure. The attendance has been large from the first, showing that it filled a need that had not been fully fully felt until Dr McIver and Dr. Alderman's eloquent pleas from Murphy to Manteo turned the thoughts of the people toward the "forgotten woman," and the North Carolinians when persuaded that they had been guilty of neglect, provided a school where women would enjoy equal advantages with men. The opening last week—425 students—was the largest in the history of the college It was likewise, we have heard it stated, the largest opening that any North Carolina college has ever had. The women are in the lead, God bless 'em, and their education and betterment means a new day for this and future generations.

The success of the Normal has not injured any of the older institutions for young women. They have more students than ever, and recently a new one, the Baptist Female Seminary, was opened in Raleigh with a very large attendance. The other Baptist female colleges in the state have not been injured by the new institution, but have opened this year with more pupils than heretofore. What does all this prove? That the zealous men engaged in female education help the cause when working for their own institutions, and that as one prospers all prosper. The harvest is great. With all the dormitories and school-rooms crowded, there remain thousands of young women who cannot enjoy the advantages which our schools and colleges afford. Dr. McIver, in welcoming the big gathering to the Normal, struck a pathetic chord when he said he looked beyond them to their sisters in many homes who saw no way to broaden their horizon by a term at college. The burden upon the state, upon the church, upon philanthropists is to make a way for the education of all the people, so that no aspiring youth shall knock in vain at the doors of the colleges for admittance.

As the Transvaal affair is occupying a good deal of the attention of the newspaper-reading world, we give below some of the Dutch words, with their meaning and pronunciation, which are often seen in print in connection with the South African Republic news:

Bloemfontein (bloom-fon-tine), flower fountain.
Boer (boo-er), farmer.
Buitenlander (boy-ten-lont-er), foreigner.
Burgher (buhr-ker), citizen.
Burgerwacht (buhr ker-vokt), citizen soldiery.
Jonkherr (unk-hare). Members of the Volkraad.
Oom (ome), Uncle.
Raad (rahd), Senate.
Raadsher (rahds-hare), Senator.
Raadhuis (rahd-hoys) Senatehouse.
Rand (rahnt), margin, edge.
Staat (staht), state.
Staatkunde (staht-kuhn-de), politics.
Staatsraad (stahts-rahd), council of state.
Stad (stot), city.
Stemmer (stemmer), voter, elector.
Transvaal (trans-fahl), circular, valley.
Trek (treck), draught, journey.
Trekken (treck-en), to draw, to travel.
Tredpaard (treckpahrd), draught horse.
Uit (oyt), out, out of.

Witwatersrand (vit-vot-ters-ront), margin of the white water.

The cruiser Brooklyn, the swift and dangerous machine which Admiral Schley made to do such execution in the Spanish fight at Santiago, the New Orleans and other of our best ships of war, will be sent to Admiral Watson at Manila, giving him a fine fleet of not less than twenty-five serviceable vessels, besides a number of small craft.

It is well, we think, this reinforcement of the navy at Manila. Watson will be enabled to close all the Philippine ports so that the insurgent supply of provisions and munitions of war may be effectually cut off.

Our war is becoming to be a most monotonous as well as an expensive affair, and if it is the rock-bound policy of the administration to continue the strife until the Filipinos yield their liberties, then all of us would hope that it may be done as quickly as possible and an end brought to the whole business; and it appears that the navy has in its power the quickest means of accomplishing this desired end.

The gigantic preparation Mr. J. B is making for his approaching scrap with Oom Paul, astonishes even his own citizens. The people of England are familiar with grinding taxes, and heavy drafts of troops to keep up war appearances, etc., but it is stated in the dispatches that the calling out of 25,000 reserves has struck surprise and wonder to even the conquest-loving British. Old man John, with his time-renowned precocity and wariness, is undoubtedly looking beyond the Transvaal in his preparations for war with the Boers. There is an ever-growing discontent with and jealousy of the power of the island government which might take occasion to assert itself in the Transvaal war, when hundreds of thousands of Dutch and Africans are resisting the queen's legions. So the government of England is thrice-arming herself over an apparently ordinary trouble, but which in reality might assume most serious proportions.

The many friends everywhere of Rev. J. C. Troy, of Jonesboro, will sympathize deeply with him in the critical illness of his wife. The Telegram hopes that she may be restored to her wonted health.

At a meeting of railroad advertising agents in Chicago recently it was declared that as a result of their experience they considered the newspaper the best of all advertising mediums.

SENATOR JONES TALKS.

Bryan and McKinley Will Again be the Candidates.

New York, October 8—United States Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, chairman of the democratic national committee, and wife, were passon the Cunard Line steamer Lucania, that reached New York today. They have been traveling in England, Ireland, Scotland, Switzerland and Wales for several months. Senator Jones said that his health had been much improved by his lengthy European travels, and he felt ready to go into the hard work necessary in getting ready for the presidential campaign.

Senator Jones, when asked to give his views on the political situation, said that owing to his long absence abroad he was not as fully informed on political conditions as he hoped to be in a few weeks. When asked his opinion as to the probability of the democratic nomination for president going to William J. Bryan, he said:

"There is no doubt that Bryan will receive the democratic nomination for president. Has anybody any doubt on that question? Bryan is sure to win."

On the attitude of Richard Croker as to the nomination of Bryan for president, Senator Jones had little to say, merely replying to a direct question: "Croker is already in line."

DOUBTS REPUBLICAN SINCERETY.

As to the possible outcome of the national campaign of 1900, Senator Jones said he believed that the free siver idea would have a greater following than in the campaign of 1896. He based this assertion on the fact that the democratic party would receive support in 1900 from a new source.

"In 1896" he said, "there were many republicans and others who believed that when the republican party declared for bimetallism, the declaration was made in all sincerety. These same men now doubt the sincerety of that plank of the republican platform."

When asked what effect he thought the apparent prosperity in the western states would have on democratic issues, Senator Jones said:

"Yes, I khow they say at Washington that the country is in a highly prosperous condition, and perhaps that is correct from certain standpoints. But I cannot see that there's any great material prosperity among the agricultural and similar classes. It does not appear to have affected the farmer, nor has it done much yet for the laboring man in general. Cotton and wheat have not made any advance to speak of in price. That argument can be readily answered when the time comes. Of course there has been an increase in the output of gold and that is bound to affect politics in some degree, greater or less. But that is only a proof of the argument advanced by us in 1896 that what the country needed was a greater volume of money in circulation.

DOES NOT FEAR PROSPERITY.

When asked what effect he thought the alleged prosperity would have on the voter in general, he said in emphatic tones:

"It will affect only those men who are very narrow in their political and social views. That voter it will influence, but really it will be an argument in favor of our party."

He said that it was his opinion that the opposing presidential candidates in 1900 would be Bryan and McKinley. The democratic platform, he declared, would be launched in that year on comparatively the same basis, and contain essentially the same planks as in 1896. The party would declare for free silver at the same ratio, and he thought about the only addition to or change in the party platform would be a plank relative to anti-imperialism. That, he asserted, would undoubtedly be one of the most important issues in the campaign. He refused to discuss the matter any more than to say, with a wave of the hand: "Everybody knows what imperialism means. The question under discussion means just the reverse."'

Senator Jones said he did not know how long he would remain in New York. His plans are still unformed. He said, however, he might go to Washington on Tuesday on business matters. During the afternoon and evening several men prominent in political life called on Senator Jones at his hotel. Among them was George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, member of the national committee, and it is presumed there was a conference over political matters and plans for the coming campaign preparations.

NOT SERIOUS, BRYAN SAYS.

Though Chicago Chronicle Claimed He Was Very Sick.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 9—A special to the Chronicle from Webster, Iowa, says:

"W. J. Bryan is a very sick man. Friends who have spent Sunday with him at the farm of Fred E. White, democratic dandidate for governor of Iowa, three miles from Webster, are afraid that Mr. Bryan may have temporarily to abandon his campaign work not only in Iowa, but in Kentucky and Ohio.

"When Mr. Bryan woke yesterday morning, he complained about his throat and lungs. but said he had suffered from a similar ailment once before and that it had yielded to treatment. Great crowds of farmers from all over Keokuk county called at the White farm to see Mr. Bryan during the morning and afternoon and although he tried hard to remain out of doors, his physical weakness mastered his courage and he had to retire several times to his room.

A local physician who was called in last night to treat the invalid recommended a long term of absolute rest and quiet. It is understood that steps will be taken by interested friends to cancel Mr. Bryan's engagements, which include two or three speeches daily, and a tour covering the width of Iowa and ending at Sioux City Saturday."

BRYAN SAYS HE IS BETTER.

Omaha, Neb., Oct 9—In reply to the telegraphic inquiry as to his condition, Hon. W. J. Bryan replied as follows from Webster, Iowa, where he is stopping with Hon. Fred White, the democratic candidate for governor of that state:

"My condition was not serious and I am much better today. I expect to be able to resume my tour tomorrow."

ONLY A LITTLE HAY FEVER.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 9—Newspaper reports of Colonel Bryan's illness are refuted by a telegram received by Mrs. Bryan from her husband today from Webster, Iowa. He says he is merely suffering from hay fever. He intends to resume speech making tomorrow.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The Fall Term Opened Yesterday With a Shortage of Justices.

Washington, Oct. 9—The United States Supreme Court convened today for the regular October term, but adjourned without transacting any business according to the usual custom. It is probable that the cases which have been assigned for next Monday will tomorrow be assigned for some day early in December, the reassignments being made necessary by the absence of Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Brewer in Europe, where they have been in attendance on the Venezuelan arbitration.

There were only five members of the bench present, one less than a quorum. They were Justices Harlan, Gray, Brown, Shiras and White. It is expected that Justice McKenna will arrive in time to sit with the court tomorrow. Among the cases which were assigned for argument next week and which will be reassigned, are those relating to the validity of taxation in Tennessee, a case involving the inheritance tax; the anti-cigarette law of Tennessee; a suit to compel the board of education of Richmond county, Ga., to provide a high school for negroes as well as whites.

The term opens with 416 cases on the docket compared with 429 at the beginning of the last October term.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Hoax—"In addition to being a yachtsman, I believe Sir Thomas Lipton is quite a golf player." Joax—"Yes; seems to me I have heard of Lipton's tees."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Cardinal Gibbons has given $100 toward the rebuilding of St. Vincent de Paul's hospital, destroyed by fire at Norfolk, Va.

The "Plow Boy Preacher," Rev. J. Kirkman, Belle Rive, Ill., says: "After suffering from Bronchial or lung trouble for ten years, I was cured by One Minute Cough Cure. It is all that is claimed for it and more." It cures coughs, colds grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

The boycott against the Big Consolidated Street Railway system, in Cleveland, Ohio, caused by the strike of the operatives, is practically at an end.

"If you scour the world you will never find a remedy equal to One Minute Cough Cure," says Editor Fackler, of the Micanopy, Fla., "Hustler." It cured his family of LaGrippe and saves thousands from pneumonia, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

Judge Lynde Harrison, one of the executors of the late Henry B Plant, of New York, says that no proceedings have been taken to attack the will.

Joseph Stockford, Hodgdon, Me., healed a sore running for seventeen years and cured his piles of long standing by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures all skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Tommy—"Pop, are there nine Muses?" Tommy's Pop—"Yes, my son; according to mythology." Tommy—"Is that why a cat has nine lives?"

President King, Farmers' Bank, Brooklyn, Mich., has used DeWitt's Little Early Risers in his family for years. Says they are the best. These famous little pills cure constipation, biliousness and all liver and bowel troubles. Howard Gardner.

Four thousand dollars in gold were stolen from a United States paymaster's wagon in San Francisco.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

TEN SHIPS FOR WATSON.

The Newark the Latest Addition to the Philippine Fleet.

Washington, Oct. 9—The navy department today assigned the Newark to the squadron that is to be sent to reinforce the fleet in the Philippines. With the addition of the Newark, the reinforcements will number ten ships. More vessels will probably be selected very soon. The greatest difficulty the department has to contend with is the lack of seamen. Congress failed to give an adequate increase in the enlisted personnel, and as a consequence the department is seriously embarrassed. If men were available, several ships now out of commission could be called into service and sent. Dewey's plan for tightly blockading Luzon will doutless be successfully carried out by Watson with his increased force.

President H. H. Vreeland, of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, New York, in a speech to employes, declared that railroad workers were benefitted by the big combinations.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel camplaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and seliable.

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Point Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." SMART AT SPELLING.

A LESSON IN ORTHOGRAPHY THAT WAS DEARLY BOUGHT.

How a Couple of Shrewd Sharpers Won Thousands of Dollars by Working the Dictionary For Game Until They Were Brought to Grief.

"How do you spell 'choir?'" asked a man in the bookstore.

"What do you mean—paper or music?" inquired a smart young man who poses as an authority on all topics.

"Music, singing, of course," replied the man in search of orthographical information.

"C-h-o-i-r," responded the smart young man decisively.

"Q-u-i-r-e," chimed in a red bearded man who was busy looking at some books.

"You are referring to paper," said the smart young man, looking sadly at the interrupter. "We were speaking about music."

"I mean music, too," said the red bearded man calmly: "q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

The smart young man's expression changed from sadness to contempt. "You had better consult your dictionary," he said with a sneer.

"Never mind," retorted the red bearded man. "My way of spelling may be a little old fashioned, but you will find it correct according to Webster. You will also find it correct according to the Century Dictionary, and if I am not mistaken it is likewise given in the Standard. Your way is all right too."

The smart young man gave a sniff of scorn. "Josh Billings and you should have collaborated on a phonetic spelling book."

"Look here," said the red bearded man, "I'll bet you $8 that Webster's latest spells it 'q-u-i-r-e.'"

"Make it $5," said the smart young man, pulling out a roll.

"No; I don't want to rob you. Get the dictionary."

The money was put up and Webster's International brought out. There it was, "q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

"I didn't mean a verb," said the smart young man, growing white around the ears. "Where is the noun?"

They found that, too, although it was marked obsolete. Then the smart young man wilted.

"I won't take your money," said the red bearded man, handing back the bills. "My name is Bell, George T. Bell. I have had educational advantages which you probably never received, and I spent several months learning the different ways to spell that word. Several years ago I was on the secret service. My partner and I had been on the trail of a pair of sharpers who had a repertory of 'con' games that would have made the ordinary bunko man look sick. They were men of far more than ordinary intelligence and had the manners of cultured men of the world. The way we happened to get them was a pure accident.

"My partner and I were going down from St. Louis on a Mississippi river packet. There were about 20 of us in the smoking room talking and trying to pass the time comfortably. Just as a lull came in the hum of conversation a young man seated at a table writing some letters looked up with a troubled air and said, 'Could any of you gentlemen tell me how to spell "choir?" I am a little puzzled over it.'

"'What kind of a one do you mean?' asked several.

"'Choir, to sing in concert,' chirped the young man, wrinkling his brow as if to recall the proper orthography.

"'C-h-o-i-r,' said a scholarly looking man with glasses on.

"'Q-u-i-r-e,' sang out a big, well fed old man off in the corner.

"'C-h-o-i-r,' repeated the first man with some emphasis. 'I thought every fool knew that.'

"'That's all right,' said the old man off in the corner. 'Money talks. I'll bet you $50 that Webster spells it "q-u-i-r-e" too.'

"'I'll raise you 50,' said the first man, who was a cotton buyer at Memphis.

"'All right,' said the big old man coolly. Then the others joined in and bet him to a standstill. They put up about $500. Then they got the dictionary, and, as just now, the man who bet on 'q-u-i-r-e' won.

"My partner and I waited till the money had changed hands, and then I said, 'Come on, Si.'

"I walked up to the young man and said: 'Come with me; I want you. I'll show you how to spell choir. Si collared the big old man and we waltzed them down below. You never saw two fellows look quite so cheap. They had cleaned up over $15,000 on that one trick, but they got four years and a half apiece. That is one spelling school I have attended that not every man goes to. That game is one which will catch nine educated men out of ten. You are all right, but you may still have something to learn."

Then the smart young man offered the usual invitation in payment for the information—Washington Post.

Cripple Creek is great on etiquette. A man out there met a little girl with whose family he is very intimate and said:

"Hello, Edith! How are you?"

The little miss drew herself up and replied:

"I'ze very well, but I ain't no telephone."—Boston Globe.

Many Thanks.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Tex. Editor Gardner Shot and Killed

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 9—C. M. Gardner, editor and publisher of Our Sunny Land, of Miami, was killed at West Palm Beach, this afternoon, by Marcus Frank, manager of a store there. A dispatch to the Times-Union and Citizen says that Mr. Gardner, who had arrived on a morning train, became involved in a quarrel with Frank, regarding the publication in Gardner's paper of an article in which Frank's mother was mentioned.

The quarrel ended by Frank shooting the editor. The slayer was arrested. A coroner's jury recommended that he be held for trial Gardner's remains were shipped to Miami tonight

Auction Sale of Land.

Pursuant to a resolution passed by the Board of Aldermen of the city on the 27th day of September, 1899, which said resolution is as follows:

Be it resolved by the Board of Aldermen of the city of Greensboro, N. C., that the property on the corner of Gaston and Greene streets belonging to the city and known as the Barker lot, be sold at public auction on Saturday, the 28th day of October, 1899, at 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door in the city of Greensboro, and that the mayor be and he is hereby authorized to carry this resolution into effect and to make title to said property to the purchaser at said sale, and that the proceeds of said sale shall be used in part payment of a lot to be bought from the county commissioners of Guilford county. That the mayor is instructed to give notice of said sale in one or more newspapers published in said city for thirty days preceding the day of sale.

I will sell at public auction the said Barker lot on Saturday the 30th day of October 1899, at 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door in Greensboro, to the highest bidder.

Z. V. TAYLOR, Mayor.

Mortgagee's Sale

Pursuant to the powers vested in the undersigned by a mortgage deed executed by James O. Elliott and Rodessa H. Elliot, his wife, to J. C. Hockett, on the 1st day of September, 1898, and recorded in book 112 at page 484 et seq. in the office of the register of deeds for Guilford county, North Carolina, he will sell to the last and highest bidder for cash at public auction in front of the court house door in Greensboro N. C., on Saturday, October 14, 1899, the following described land, namely:

A tract or parcel of land in the county of Guilford and state of North Carolina, in Morehead township adjoining the lands of A. A. Hinson, David Kersey and others, and bounded as follows, to-wit:

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Fifty carpenters are wanted at once at Pinehurst. See penny ad in this paper.

Maj. J. E. Alexander, who has been here attending federal court, returned to Winston at noon today.

There will be a dance in the McAdoo Hall, telephone exchange building, tonight, complimentary to Dr. Chas. L. Scott, the popular young physician who recently located here.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Fariss' drug store for the Great Southern Minstrels, which aggregation will hold the boards at the Academy of Music next Friday night.

There has, as yet, been no mutterings of thunder apropos of the tearing up of the old street car track on North Elm street. Some people would have been glad had the work extended along South Elm to the depot.

Tomorrow is the day for the millinery opening at Mrs. Cator & Co's. Read the announcement in the penny column today, and if you want to see the new beauties in fall millinery, attend the opening display.

You'll feel better and look as well in one of our $15 suits as you would in any other tailors $25 suit. You'll feel better because you will have that $10 in your pocket. P. Kolman, the up-to-date popular price tailor.

The hustling Southside furniture dealers, Messrs. Bloxton & Jennings, are in the Telegram today with a big ad that is worthy the careful perusal of all housekeepers who desire to beautify the interior of their homes and add to the comforts of living.

Young men wishing to be instructed in the ordinary branches of education by special arrangement for a night class would do well to apply for information at the Telegram office. Make your application in writing and direct to editor Telegram. 10-4t

This is overcoat season, and now is the time for you to make your selection. Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees are advertising nice dress top coats today in whipcord worsted and Covert cloth. The price is reasonable and the garments are superb. See new ad on front page.

Editor W. H. McNeill, of the Carthage Blade, who was in the city yesterday, says the people of his town, which, by the way, we happen to know is one of the very best small towns in the State, are very enthusiastic over the idea of a railroad from that place to Greensboro, and would like to see the idea develop into something tangible. Such a road would open up a territory of vast resources in the shape of timber and water power.

ON TO ASHEVILLE.

The Presbyterian Synod Meets There Tonight.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina meets about a month earlier this year than usual. This is probably because the meeting is to be held in Asheville, and it was held at this season on account of the more delightful weather in the skyland at this season than will probably be a month later.

A number of ministers and delegates were here this morning, many of them spending the night here, enroute to Asheville. Among them we noticed: Rev. P. R. Law, of Lumberton; Capt. Geo. Willcox, Carbonton; Rev. L. G. Wharton, Durham; Dr. E. C. Murray, Mebane; Rev. R. W. Culbertson, Hawfields; Rev. A. R. Shaw, Henderson; Rev. A. S. Caldwell, Oxford; Rev. C. N. Wharton, Warrenton, a son of Mr. W. D. Wharton, of this place; Rev. W. P. McCorkle, Graham, and Rev. J. McL. Seabrook, pastor of Bethel and Buffalo churches. Rev. C. E. Hodgin and Mr. T. G. McLean went from Wesminster church, this city.

The Next Minstrel.

When people turn aside from the ordinary duties of daily life to look for recreation, they want some good, pure wholesome entertainment that will not only rest their tired minds and jaded spirits, but amuse them as well, and there is an amusement enterprise coming to the Academy of Music on Friday night, Oct. 13th, that will do all this and much more "The Great Southern Minstrels," with its superb organization of peerless comedians, high class specialty artists, coterie of sweet singers, inimitable dancers, augmented orchestra, magnificent stage settings and gorgeous costumes forming in its entirety the most expensive and distinguished array of foreign and American minstrel talent and spectacular effects ever brought to this city for the edification and amusement of our fun-loving public. The most positive assurance is given by the management that nothing is said or done to mar the most fastidious person in the city. Watch for big parade. Reserved seats on sale at Fariss' drug store.

To Buy Finishing Mill.

It is reported this afternoon that a party of northern capitalists are in the city negotiating for the purchase of the Finishing Mill. They were driven around the city and shown the property by Mr. E. L. Garsed, one of the stockholders in the mill.

Few people can live without working. If they don't work themselves they usually work somebody else.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

A BIG DEAL.

Greensboro Sash and Blind Co. Sell to West Virginia People.

This morning a deal was consummated by which the property of the Greensboro Sash & Blind Co. was sold to two West Virginia gentlemen, who will take charge the first of January next. The present management will continue until that time.

For the present the names of the new firm are withheld from publication for reasons which to them seem justifiable. It may be said, however, that they are men of large means and experience and will make the business hum. They will run the factory to its full capacity.

For fifteen years and over Messrs J. R. Mendenhall and J. W. McNairy, two of the city's sterling citizens, have conducted a successful business under the name of the Greensboro Sash and Blind Co., and under that name will continue the business until January 1st as if there had been no sale, and the new firm after that time will fill all remaining contracts at the contract price.

To the newcomers the Telegram extends a warm welcome and assures them they are coming to a live town.

To the men who will retire from the business, Messrs. Mendenhall and McNairy, we extend our best wishes for future success, and hope they will not be long in again engaging in business here.

A FINE SHOWING.

Annual Meeting Greensboro Tobacco Association Today.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Tobacco Association was held today at the office of W. E Bevill, and was enthusiastically attended.

Reports were made by the president, the secretary and the treasurer. The one made by the president was most gratifying, showing a large gain over last year in the number of pounds sold, and the general average higher than on any other market in Piedmont Carolina.

Our buyers are in better shape and seem more eager for tobacco than ever before.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, E. J. Stafford.
Vice President, C. A. Bray.
Secretary, John W. King.
Treasurer, W. E. Bevill.
Sales Committee, G. O. Wilson, H. C. Berger and R. G. Lea.
Arbitration Committee, E. J. Stafford, H. C. Berger and C. A. Bray.
Executive Committe, W. E. Bevill, R. O Gamble and J. H. Whitt.

A Wheel Stolen

Mr. F. A. Burgin's wheel was stolen from his porch last night. The wheel is a Sterling and bears Mr. Burgin's name on the handle bars. The thief has probably left Greensboro, as there was no clue to him this morning. The wheel will probably be recovered, as the thief will most likely abandon it when he sees the name on it.

When You Buy Guns

and PISTOLS you want something that you can depend on—something with name and reputation back of it. The additional cost of a good gun or revolver over a cheaper article is very small compared with the satisfaction you get. Guns are bought for service and are not subject to changes in style, but can be used until worn out. For this reason their quality is of the highest importance and should be carefully looked into. We have big guns, little guns, guns of almost every kind, guns that will suit your fancy and purse.
